READING

3A Read the article and circle the best title.

- 1 Lottery winners around the world
- 2 Sisters win lottery
- 3 Another teenage lottery winner

First there was Tracey Makin in 1998, then Michael Carroll in 2002, and then Callie Rogers in 2003 – all of them were teenagers when they won the lottery. Tracey was sixteen at the time and won £1,055,171. Callie was the same age when she won £1,800,000 and Michael was nineteen when he won £9,700,000.

Now eighteen-year-old Ianthe Fullagar is the newest in this group of teenage lottery winners. She won £7,000,000 and we asked her about her future.

'I'm not going to change my plans very much. I'm still going to go to university. I'm going to live like a normal student and not a millionaire. I love my baked beans on toast.'

It was only the second time that she played the EuroMillions Lottery. She bought her ticket from a newsagent's and watched the lottery result on television.

First on her shopping list is a holiday in Egypt and a replacement for her ten-year-old Ford Ka. 'I'm going to fly to Cairo and spend about a month travelling around the country. When I come back, I'm going to sell my old car and buy a new one. I'd like to get a bigger one.'
